

Take a cube of bread from the plate and dip it into the chalice. As you walk, you will be served where they are seated. Consecrated non-gluten wafers available upon request.

You may continue on to one of the stations at the big altar for healing and be anointed with oil into the palm of your hand for your pain, illness, or brokenness. You may want to wear a name tag.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Twenty-First Sunday

All Saints Day

*The saints have no need of us, neither does our devotion add to their merit.
Clearly, if we venerate their memory,
But I tell you, when I think of them, I feel their love for me.*

Entrance

Prelude — “Prelude and Fugue in G major”.....

Introit — “Let All the World in Every Corner Sing”.....

*Processional Hymn No. 711 — “For All the Saints”.....

*Greeting —

We gather in the name of Jesus Christ, to worship the one God, who gives us life and sustains our every breath.
Great is our God, who deserves our greatest praise,
whose goodness is beyond all our imagining.
Each generation shall pass on the good news to the next,
and shall declare to their children the glory of the Lord.

Call to Prayer

Who may ascend the hill of the Lord? Who may stand in the holy place?
Only those who have clean hands and a pure heart,
who do not lift up their souls to another.
Therefore, let us make our confession to God and to one another.

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
