ORDER OF WORSHIP

*“Name any temple you like, any ground that is sacred. . . because at one time God met us there:
a church, denomination, neighborhood, family, friendship, vocation, passion, memory or dream - they all have a lifespan and they all come to an end.*

The only worthy worship is the worship that rises from the ruins of our temples.”

~ Paul D. Duke

Sarah Amos, organ

Introit..... Chancel Choir

*Call to Worship..... Jacob McCulloh

The Lord is continually creating something new.

We are part of that creation, renewed, redeemed, beloved.

Through all this change, God is with us.

Though we struggle and doubt, yet God is faithful.

Praise be to God who continually blesses us.

Let our hearts, our voices, and our spirits sing God’s praises.

*Hymn of Praise No. 70 — “Gloria Patri”

Call to Prayer

Because God is always more ready to listen than we are to pray,
we can come before the Lord in confidence,
knowing that our prayer will be heard, and our sins forgiven.
And so, we pray together.

Prayer of the People

Merciful God, we come before you this day as those who are often afraid to confess all the many ways in which we have disappointed and betrayed You.
You have given us continual opportunities to serve and love others,
but we have withdrawn into lives of selfishness and greed.
We have turned our backs on others in need.
We have denied the gifts you have given us.
Where can we turn now that we have run from you?
Your voice calls to us to come home, to come to you unafraid,
to receive forgiveness and healing.
Open our hearts this day to receive these magnificent blessings.
Help us understand the many ways in which you love us,
and help us share that love with all those whom we meet.
For we ask this in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
